STATE LINE

Les McReynolds

American trucker hears the shaman speak
Biker espresso
Can't stay asleep
Birdman drags feathers from L.A. to Chicago
Highway feasts, fingers of chains
Sailors mute over rubles
Humid hair, it is damaging slow
Letters come like k's
And numbers 901
Suspended over the suspended child
Waves crash over a drive
Shores of freedom
How many aisles to sunrise
What is this, guns in our land
The ship of life
The world as whiskey heaven
Pane of glass beaten between
Amazonian birds disappear into our energy
A fabulous mobility.
